

Job Opportunity: Speech-Language Pathologist, Deaf & Hard of Hearing Specialist

The Hearing, Speech & Deafness Center (HSDC) - named "Medium Nonprofit Employer of the Year" by The Governor's Committee on Disability Issues and Employment - is a nonprofit agency with over 70 years of service to the greater Seattle community. We currently have a position available for a full-time Speech-Language Pathologist specializing in working with individuals who have hearing loss.

In this position, you will work collaboratively with other SLPs, Deaf Educators, Audiologists and an SLP Assistant to provide comprehensive communication services for children and adults with hearing loss in both educational and clinical settings.

Benefits for employees include:

- Medical coverage
- Continuing education opportunities
- Opportunity to work in an innovative, bilingual (American Sign Language & English) workplace
- Short-term/long-term disability and life insurance
- Flexible scheduling options

Qualifications

- CCC-SLP and eligibility for Washington State Licensure (strong CF considered)
- Specific training and experience in the area of Aural Rehabilitation/Habilitation potentially including;
 - Knowledge and experience with cochlear implant and hearing aid technology
 - AVT (Auditory Verbal Therapy) training, experience, and or certification
- Excellent professional written and verbal communication, problem solving, and interpersonal skills.
- Knowledge of Cued Speech or willing to learn (training & on-site mentoring provided)
- Knowledge of American Sign Language or willingness to learn
- First Aid/CPR certification, or willing to obtain

Please submit resume and cover letter to Jennifer Sherley, M.A., CCC-SLP, Director of Speech, Language & Literacy: jsherley@hsrc.org or call (206) 388-1278.